Mr. Wishard has filled with efficiency and competence the office of superintendent. His spirit of absolute fairness and his willingness to help have won the admiration and friendship of us all.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Matney has served very capably as our principal the past two years. His calm and business-like manner of handling school problems has been very effective in building up better co-operation between students and teachers.

Silly - It has been a pleasure having a cheerful student like you in our school. Always keep smiling and maintaining that pleasant disposition. I've need more smiling students such as you around here. Oliver Matney

I, Marvin Beeman, do hereby will my football ability to Tom Penley.
It's tough!!

I, Pat Burns, do hereby will my height to Albert Peters.

To Charles Hessler, I, Marvin Gelroth, do hereby will my humor.

I, Jim Hilyen, do hereby will my weak ankle to anyone who can get along with it. It isn't easy!!

I, Cecil Hitchcock, do hereby will my ability to drive a jeep and the privilege of having a steady girl to Richard Ehmann.

To Bill McKinster, I, Edgar Larsen, will my quiet ways. They come in handy.

I, James McVeigh, do hereby will my black curly hair to Dale Mikelson. Wash it twice a week!

I, Lawrence Mikelson, do hereby will my graceful ways to Helen Shea.

I, Alvin Moore, do hereby will my dimples to Sid. Faver.

I, Vernon Nelson, do hereby will my statue to Buddie Curtis.

I, Wayne Oblander, do hereby will my artistic ability to Chuck
Williams. Start with a straight line, Chuck.

I, Roland Schriener, do hereby will my ability to have plenty of wind to play a clarinet to Barbara King.

To Lloyd Allen, I, Bob Scott, will my ways with girls.

The second part of the report deals with the results of the various measures taken. It shows that the situation has improved in many respects, but that there is still much work to be done.

The third part of the report contains a summary of the various measures taken and a list of the various organizations and individuals who have been instrumental in carrying them out.

The fourth part of the report is a list of the various organizations and individuals who have been instrumental in carrying out the various measures taken.

The fifth part of the report is a list of the various organizations and individuals who have been instrumental in carrying out the various measures taken.

The sixth part of the report is a list of the various organizations and individuals who have been instrumental in carrying out the various measures taken.

The seventh part of the report is a list of the various organizations and individuals who have been instrumental in carrying out the various measures taken.

The eighth part of the report is a list of the various organizations and individuals who have been instrumental in carrying out the various measures taken.

The ninth part of the report is a list of the various organizations and individuals who have been instrumental in carrying out the various measures taken.

The tenth part of the report is a list of the various organizations and individuals who have been instrumental in carrying out the various measures taken.

Senior Class Prophecy

James McVeigh is now a pilot for Continental Airlines and it just happens that Elaine Hilburger is head stewardess on his plane.

We see Josie Arriola racking her brain and it has just come to the place where she feels she has to invent something to add height to short people.

Edgar Larsen is now a dancing instructor at Arthur Murray's. He specializes in rumbas.

Patsy Fauver is now sole owner of a horse ranch and a large stockholder in the Centennial Turf Club.

We see Cecil Hitchcock working his way through a vast jungle. He is a big game hunter in Africa.

Jeanie Rosendale is now the swimming instructor at the Y.M.C.A.

Jim Hilyen is now seen working in a cracker factory cracking as many jokes as nuts.

Mary Lou Bowman is now a singing star appearing over television!

Marvin Gelroth now has his own cabinet shop and has made his first million. (Cabinets, that is.)

Frances Johnson is happily married to Boyd Thomas and is chief cook for the Western Transport Drivers.

Bill Serrell is now taking all the prizes at the cattle show with his prize winning cattle.

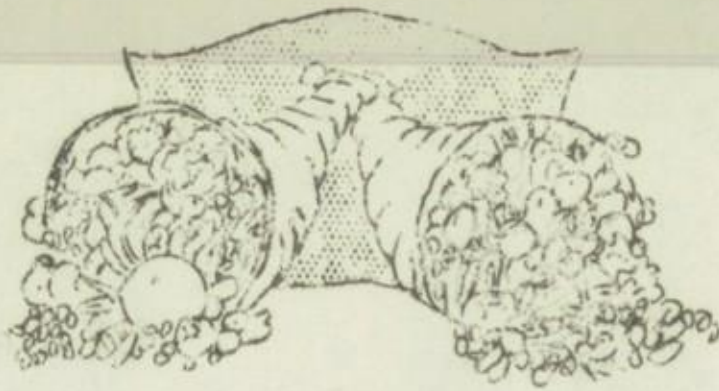

Lola Dare is now taking in washings. She does baby-sitting on the side.

Gay Smith has at last found his rich widow and he is now living a quiet life on his wife's plantation down south.

Bob Scott is a debator debating on such subjects as "Wine and Wild, Wild Women."

Bob Sobey is a great mathematical genius. He is carrying on Einstein's Theory of Relativity.

Sarah Cansino is now the head librarian in Princeton University and the author of several widely read books.

First we see Kendal Andrews. She now has a career in interior decorating. She just finished decorating the President's study in the White House.

Marlene Lewis is always sitting in a hot grandstand cheering her best. Marlene has accomplished her life goal. She is now owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

We see Louise Stinson sliding down a ski jump. She is very close to the World Championship.

Marvin Beeman is seen hurriedly gathering bottles and putting them in a little black satchel. You see, Marvin is a veterinarian.

We see Pat Burns in a navy uniform. Pat is now Admiral Burns.

Wayne Oblander now has his own comic strip featuring Bugs Bunny Larsen.

Elaine Andres is seen in a white uniform. She is now a nurse and she is very popular with her patients.

Joan Barnes is seen feverishly working over a few books. Joan is bookkeeper for Douglas County High School.

We see Barbara Cramer facing a large audience. She is chief comedian on her own radio show.

Sharon Lowell is now head hair dresser in a very fashionable shop. She specializes in curling bachelor's mustaches.

Vernon Nelson is now manager of the Jackson Clothing Store. They feature the newest style Paris bathing suits.

Harriet Shea is now training to become a nurse. She is specializing in the treatment of Burns.

Roland Schriner now follows all the rodeos and is known as a famous bronc buster.

Alvin Moore has a life occupation as a teacher in Industrial Arts.

Jo Ann Winkler is now seen sitting behind a huge desk in her office and is now a successful lawyer.

Lawrence Mikelson is now a hole-puncher in a doughnut factory.

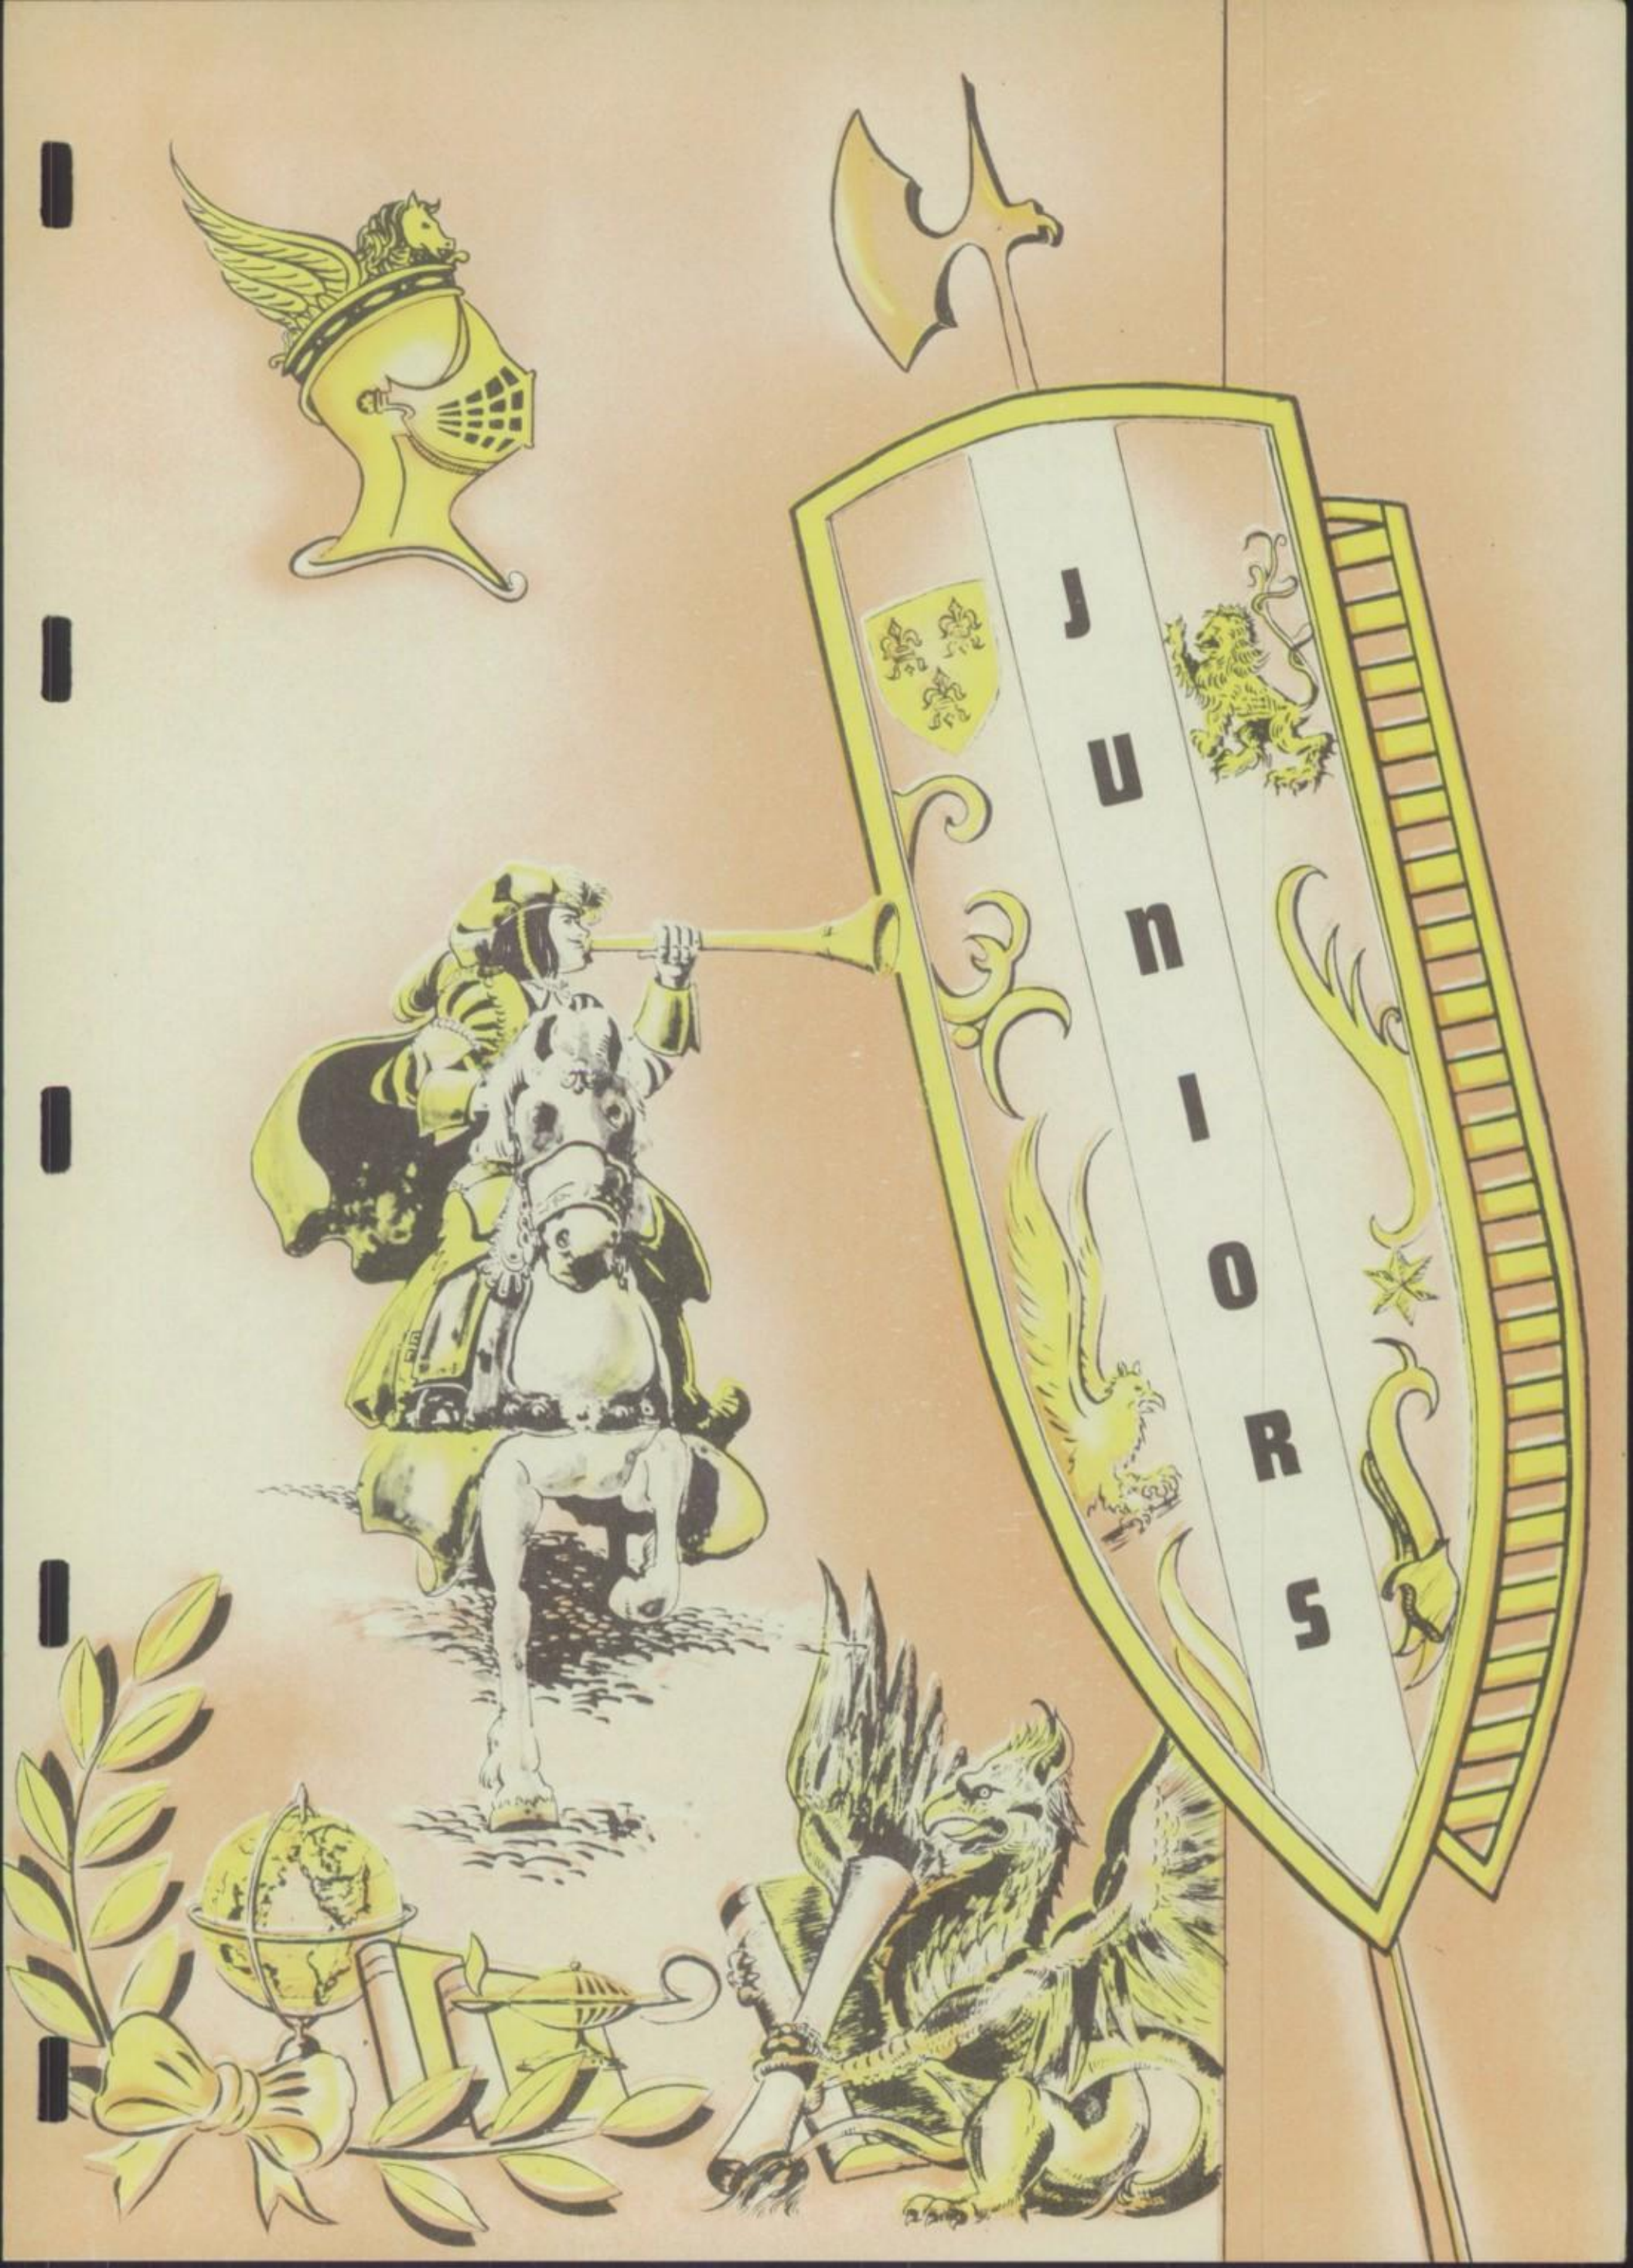

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be carefully documented to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This section also touches upon the need for regular audits and the role of the accounting department in overseeing these processes.

In the second section, the focus shifts to the management of cash flow. It provides a detailed analysis of the company's current financial position, highlighting areas where cash is being effectively utilized and identifying potential bottlenecks. Recommendations are made to streamline operations and improve the timing of payments and receipts.

The third part of the document addresses the issue of budgeting. It outlines the process of setting realistic financial goals and creating a comprehensive budget that covers all aspects of the business. The importance of monitoring progress against the budget is stressed, along with strategies for adjusting the plan as needed to stay on track.

Finally, the document concludes with a summary of the key findings and recommendations. It reiterates the commitment to financial transparency and the goal of achieving long-term sustainable growth. The author expresses confidence in the company's ability to overcome challenges and reach its full potential.
